

FuTour Newsletter 3/09.2023

Dear readers,

We're delighted to update you on the steps FuTour has been making in sustainable and digital tourism.

A snapshot of our milestones, achievements, and what lies ahead.

Training Kit: Since the publication of our Newsletter 2, we have finalized and refined our Training Kit. This milestone has been a significant highlight of our journey. Developed with the combined expertise of our partners, it offers an amalgamation of objectives and key components that cater to modern training needs. Following its launch, internal testings have shown promising outcomes, affirming its relevance and effectiveness.

MOOC on FuTour: Spearheaded by our partner CFP Cemon, and since the release of our last newsletter, this curriculum has been finalized and meticulously refined. It emphasizes the perfect blend of sustainability and digitization in tourism. The feedback from the initial hands-on sessions has been overwhelmingly positive, further driving us to enhance and expand its reach. Challenge your knowledge and skills by experiencing our MOOC: <https://futour.erasmusplus.website/platform/course/index.php#>.

Matchmaking Platform: A milestone we're exceptionally proud of! AKNOW's Online Matchmaking Platform not only widens the spectrum of opportunities in digital tourism but also offers endless possibilities for stakeholders to connect and collaborate.

What is next within FuTour

4th Transnational Meeting: This October, we will be convening in Darlowo, Poland, for our 4th transnational meeting. We will blend this gathering with a mini multiplier event, extending invitations to VET teachers from regional schools we collaborate with, to
